
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests a report on violation of rights of pensioners in the Chelyabinsk Region

Today on a federal channel it was reported that in Chelyabinsk there is a center for providing medical services to pensioners, in which the staff, as noted, take advantage of elderly patients: they make terrible diagnoses and promise to cure the illnesses with expensive therapy, offer loans that older people have to pay for the rest of their lives. The Chelyabinsk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia is carrying out an assessment.

The Chairman of Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Chelyabinsk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia Reshetnikov P.G. to report on the progress of assessment activities. The progress of the assessment is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.
