
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests reports on a number of incidents with children

The Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the Tyva Republic is investigating a criminal case initiated over the discovery of the bodies of two girls with signs of violent death in Kyzyl.

Tonight the bodies of two girls, 9 and 14 years old, with multiple injuries were found under the windows of the house. In the course of urgent investigative actions, the person involved in the crime was identified. It turned out to be the 20-year-old neighbor of the girls. The man was arrested.

Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed the acting head of the investigative department, G. S. Kuryu, to report on all the circumstances of the incident. The progress of investigation of the probe is under the supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.

In addition, the St. Petersburg Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia is investigating a criminal case initiated on the fact of attempted murder of a minor.

According to preliminary information, a man, being in a state of alcoholic intoxication, pushed his 10-year-old disabled son out of the 10th floor window holding him by his legs. The mother reported the incident to the police, after which the father was detained.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the acting head of the investigation department, A.D. Golombievsky, to report on the circumstances of the incident. The investigation is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation.

31 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1625214>