
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to check information about possible arbitrariness and violation of the rights of residents of one of the agricultural cooperatives in the Leningrad Region

Social networks are reporting on a possible case of arbitrariness and violation of the rights of residents of one of the farms in the Leningrad Region. It is reported that one of the families who came to visit was not allowed on the territory of the farm and was offered to spend the night on an unlit unpaved forest road. It is noted that this may not be the first case in which it is necessary to call the police to ensure the legal right of access to their property.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Leningrad Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia S.T. Sazin to verify the arguments set forth in the publications, thoroughly investigate the situation and report on the conducted verification activities.
