The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to report on a number of incidents in the regions, announced in the media and social networks

Today it was reported in social networks that officials of the Irkutsk city administration violated the rights of the family of a veteran of the Great Patriotic War, as a result of which part of the land, which was owned by his son, was sold to a private person for construction. The Irkutsk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia organized a procedural check. The Chairman of Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Irkutsk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia Sitnikov A.V. to report on the preliminary results of the verification.

Moreover, today on federal TV channel the story of a troubled family from the village of Gorbunki in Leningrad region was discussed. It was reported that 10 people live in the municipal apartment in unsanitary conditions, including five small children. It is noted that the mother abuses alcohol and does not work. It is also reported that the children are not fed and are physically abused. In addition, custody officials do not respond to the signals of citizens and do not take measures to protect the rights of minors.
