
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia ordered to report on the situation with violation of the rights of residents of a housing construction cooperative in the Moscow Region

A federal channel aired a report on the intention of residents of one of the districts of Moscow Region to apply to the Investigative Committee with a collective letter about the violation of their rights. It is reported that in 2011 citizens purchased shares to join the housing and construction cooperative "Skhodnya", people never received housing, and construction was frozen. It is noted that the head of the company continues to attract new people to other construction cooperatives. In addition, it is reported that there are court decisions to recover money in favor of the shareholders, but they are not implemented.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee instructed the head of the Moscow Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A. Starikov to look into the circumstances and report on the situation.

The progress of execution of the order is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.
