
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia ordered to report on the measures taken by the investigation to resolve the issues of citizens in the Nizhny Novgorod Region, who had previously applied for a personal reception

On November 10, 2021, during a personal reception by the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia in a video-conference format, citizens from Nizhny Novgorod Region, who are residents of a house partially destroyed in July 2020 as a result of a domestic gas leak, were heard. Alexander Bastykin instructed to prepare a letter to the Governor of Nizhny Novgorod Region, which would outline all the aspects voiced by the complainants.

In connection with the new published in the media appeal to the leadership of the Investigative Committee of Russia for assistance in the resettlement of the emergency nine-story building, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the Acting Head of the Investigation Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation for Nizhny Novgorod region Kanonerov D.G. to report promptly on the measures taken by the investigation to restore the violated rights of citizens and other issues of concern to them.
