Upon request of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, consideration of the appeal of a woman from the Voronezh Region will be supervised by the Central Office of the Committee

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee put the consideration of the appeal of a resident of Voronezh on the violation of the rights of her son, who has a genetic disease, under supervision of the Central Office of the agency. According to the woman, the problems began after he was withdrawn from disability, following which, according to the complainant, her son was deprived of the opportunity to receive adequate medical care.

A.I. Bastrykin instructed the Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Voronezh region Levit K.E. to consider the circumstances of violation of the woman's son's rights voiced by the complainant and to report on the measures taken on the woman's appeal.
