The Chairman of the Investigative Committee requests a report on the possible violation of the rights of carriers in Bashkortostan

In connection with an appeal to the Head of the Investigative Committee by representatives of an association of carriers from Bashkortostan, which appeared in one of the media, Alexander Bastrykin instructed the Head of the Republican Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia, D.N. Chernyaev, to report on the situation.

The applicants believe that "the local authorities are hindering their legitimate business activities and are squeezing private carriers out of the industry in order to free up routes for the state enterprise".

Currently, the Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the Republic of Bashkortostan is conducting a check, the first deputy head of the department E.V. Lagatsky held a personal reception of the individual entrepreneur.
