
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requested a report on circumstances of attack on a woman in Omsk Region

In connection with the intention of a resident of Omsk to appeal to the leadership of the Investigative Committee of Russia about the attack on his mother and received death threats from his stepfather, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the Head of the Omsk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia Vinnikov O. E. to report on the circumstances of the incident.

In addition, Alexander Bastrykin instructed to petition for the transfer of the criminal case materials to the investigative bodies of the Investigative Committee of Russia for a full and objective investigation.

Earlier the media reported that the applicant's stepfather, who came home intoxicated, said during a quarrel that he was ready to kill both the woman and her children and then stabbed her several times. The woman, born in 1973, was hospitalized.
