

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requested a report on the situation with defrauded real estate shareholders of a Samara residential buildings

A federal channel aired a report about deceived shareholders from Samara, who were victims of a "double sales" scheme. It is reported that the square meters in the apartment building were sold twice: one developer went bankrupt, and the company that replaced him sold apartments already sold earlier to other buyers. Among the victims of such a scheme were both pensioners and families who had invested maternity capital in these apartments.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the Head of the Investigative Department for Samara Region M.F. Galikhanov to report on the results of the procedural investigation into the negligence of officials of the regional Ministry of Construction.
