
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests a report on beating of a 14-year-old boy in the Yaroslavl Region

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation in the Yaroslavl Region A.M. Sobolev to report on the progress of the investigation into the beating of the teenager.

According to investigators, on December 4 of this year near one of the houses in the city of Yaroslavl a 54-year-old man beat a 14-year-old boy. With a diagnosis of "closed cranial trauma, concussion of the brain, contusions of soft tissues of the face and abdomen" the teenager was hospitalized in a medical institution. An inquest into the case was organized.

The degree of severity of the harm inflicted on the teenager will be assessed by forensic medical examination.
