The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests a repost on the circumstances of violation of rights of a minor child in St. Petersburg

The head of the Investigative Committee instructed the acting head of the St. Petersburg Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A.D. Golombievsky to report on the interim results of the ongoing investigation into the injury of a 7-month-old baby in the Northern capital.

It was previously reported that in the evening of December 17, 2021, a 7-month-old boy with thermal burns was taken from an apartment on Enthusiastov Avenue in St. Petersburg to a hospital, where he is currently receiving professional medical care. The investigation is performing the necessary verification measures aimed at establishing all the circumstances of the incident.

The progress of the investigation and its results, as instructed by the Chairman of the Investigative
