
A criminal case initiated into the head of Krasnodar city administration

The Krasnodar Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia initiated criminal proceedings against the former first deputy head of the administration of Krasnodar Territory, currently the head of the administration of the city of Krasnodar, on suspicion of taking a bribe in especially large amounts (Part 6 of Article 290 of the Criminal Code) on materials provided by the Department of the Federal Security Service of Krasnodar Territory.

According to the investigation, holding the position of the first deputy governor of Krasnodar Krai, the man through an intermediary in 2018 received a bribe in the form of an expensive gun worth about 1 million 600 thousand rubles for the unhindered issuance of the department supervised by him on the compliance of the erected apartment building in the Prikubansky district of Krasnodar, despite the presence of several defects.

At present, initial investigative actions are being carried out, searches are being conducted in the administration, and an investigator is working with the suspect.
