
Chairman of the Investigative Committee Ordered to Report on Progress in Search for a Missing Girl in Volgograd Oblast

In the morning of 13 January 2022, a girl born in 2006 left her home in the village of Chukhonastovka, Kamyshinsky district, Volgograd Oblast, and headed off to school, but never reached it. Her whereabouts are still unknown despite any actions taken to find the girl. Due to the long-term absence of the child, the police opened up a criminal case under Article 105 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (murder), which, by order of the Chairman of the IC of Russia, was handed over to the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia for the most efficient investigation.

A. I. Bastykin ordered to report on the progress in the search and investigation.
