
Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Ordered to Report Findings of Checkup Regarding Media Reports About Unlawful Actions at Mark Zakharov Lenkom Theater

Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin ordered A. A. Strizhov, Head of the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia for Moscow, to report the checkup findings and decision made upon review of a journalist's appeal regarding potential attempted misappropriation of property.

In a statement earlier released by the journalist in open sources, the author says that he has collected information about the situation at the Mark Zakharov Lenkom Moscow State Theater indicating unlawful actions in public procurements. A. I. Bastrykin ordered to make a thorough examination of arguments and report on the situation.

03 February 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1653373>