Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Instructs to Arrange Check on Media Reports about Families Living in Dangerous Conditions in House in Sverdlovsk Oblast

According to the media reports, in the village of Bilimbai, Sverdlovsk Oblast, families with children live in a house in reportedly dangerous conditions: the ceiling sags and may soon collapse. It is noted that the people have been waiting for housing improvement or repairs for five years.

The Chairman of the IC of Russia has instructed Head of the Investigative Department for Sverdlovsk Oblast M. V. Boginsky to organize a check on the published information and to report on the situation.
