
Chairman of the IC of Russia Orders to Report on Criminal Case on Murder of Head of Municipal Okrug Administration in Krasnodar Krai

According to the media reports, relatives of victims of crimes committed by Vyacheslav Tsepoviyaz and his accomplices asked to investigate the latter's ex-spouse and her brother, as well as Tsepoviyaz himself, for involvement in the organization of unsolved murders. In particular, in their appeal, the victims asked the superiors of the IC of Russia to scrutinize the criminal case on the murder of Boris Moskvich.

The Chairman of the IC of Russia has ordered Head of the Investigative Department of the IC of Russia for Krasnodar Krai A. K. Maslov to additionally report on the ongoing investigative actions and relevant information on the criminal case on the murder of Head of the Kushchevsky District Municipal Okrug Administration Boris Moskvich, which was committed in January 2002.

Earlier, Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed to report on the progress of the criminal case investigation.
