
Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Ordered to Report on Progress in Investigation of Death of Two Teenagers in Saint Petersburg

Chairman of the Investigative Committee A. I. Bastrykin ordered M. G. Parastaeva, Acting Head of the Main Investigative Department for Saint Petersburg, to report on progress in the investigation of the criminal case opened over the death of two teenagers in the Northern Capital.

Yesterday, news outlets reported that the bodies of two fifteen year olds showing signs of fall from height were found near the building in Toreza Prospekt in Saint Petersburg. Currently, the law enforcement investigates all circumstances, causes and motives behind what happened and led to the death of children.
