
Chairman of the Investigative Committee Ordered to Report on Probes Into Reports of Alleged Negligence of Employees of the Children Rehab Facility in the Republic of Dagestan

There are social media reports with arguments of a girl's mother, who claims that her daughter has suffered moderate injuries at a rehab facility for children with special needs in the Republic of Dagestan, due to which she had to spend 8 days at a hospital. The relatives are calling on the law enforcement to bring those responsible to justice. The Investigative Department of the ICR for the Republic of Dagestan probes into this case under Article 238 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation.

Chairman of the IC of Russia ordered A. P. Shchurov, Head of the Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation for the Republic of Dagestan, to report on the ongoing probes.
