
Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia Instructs to Record and Investigate Death of Civilians and Injury of Child in Donetsk

Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed to document and investigate firing at civilians in Donetsk.

According to media reports, two civilians were killed today as a result of shelling by the Ukrainian military in Donetsk.

In addition, Kievsky District of the capital of the Donetsk People's Republic was subjected to massive shelling by the Ukrainian military forces, as a result of which a nine-year-old child was injured.

A. I. Bastrykin instructed the investigators of the Central Office to document and investigate these incidents within the criminal case, reminding about the need to promptly exchange information on crimes committed by the AFU with the law enforcement agencies of the DPR and LPR.

01 March 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1660650>