
Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia Instructs Officials to Continue Recording the Facts of Shelling of the Donetsk People's Republic

Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, has instructed the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia to investigate the circumstances of new shelling of the DPR.

Today it has been reported that Ukrainian troops shelled the settlements of Dokuchaevsk, Spartak, Donetsk and Lugansk, using heavy weapons. Also, the settlement of Veseloye in the Donetsk People's Republic came under fire.

The Chairman of the IC of Russia instructed officials to collect and record evidence of the facts of shelling for further thorough and comprehensive investigation of the criminal activities of Ukrainian military personnel.
