
Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Instructs to Investigate Circumstances of Missile Strike on Oil Depot in Lugansk

Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed the investigators of the Central Office to initiate a criminal case on the missile strike on an oil depot in Lugansk.

According to the media reports, this morning, an explosion and subsequent fire occurred at an oil depot in Lugansk as a result of a missile strike launched by Ukrainian nationalists. Information about civilian casualties and infrastructure damage is being clarified.

The head of the department instructed to ensure the prompt collection and documentation of the evidence required to identify the persons involved in the shelling.

07 March 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1662379>