
Chairman of the IC of Russia Instructs to Continue Documenting and Investigating New Attacks in DPR

Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia to document and investigate the circumstances of the new incidents of shelling in the Donetsk People's Republic.

According to the DPR representatives in the Joint Center for Control and Coordination on Ceasefire (JCCC), Ukrainian troops opened fire on the DPR 33 times over the day, using 496 munitions; four civilians were wounded.

The investigators continue to collect evidence of these attacks for further thorough and comprehensive investigation of Ukrainian servicemen's criminal actions.
