
Chairman of the IC of Russia Posthumously Awards a Graduate of the IC Cadet Corps, Who Was Killed During the Special Military Operation

Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, has posthumously awarded Georgy Alexandrovich Dudorov with the IC medal “Valor and Courage”. Georgy Dudorov was a graduate of the Alexander Nevsky Cadet Corps of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation who honorably fulfilled his military duty.

Georgy Dudorov was the deputy commander of a reconnaissance company for military-political work of the 137th Regiment of the 106th Tula Guards Airborne Division. As previously reported, on March 6, 2022, a column of his company came under an artillery attack by Ukrainian nationalist detachments, which tragically cut short the life of the courageous hero.

Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin has instructed officials to provide comprehensive support to the family of the deceased officer. The IC officers sincerely mourn together with the relatives and friends of Georgy Dudorov and are ready to support them not only in word, but also in deed. The memory of our comrade, a man who has become an example of true patriotism and courage, steadfastness and devotion to duty and oath, shall remain forever in our hearts.
