
A.I. Bastrykin Instructs Investigators to Immediately Initiate a Criminal Case Against a Ukrainian TV Presenter for Threats Against Russian Pilots and Their Families

A.I. Bastrykin, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, has instructed the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia to initiate a criminal case against Natalya Moseychuk, a TV presenter of the Ukrainian TV channel “1+1”, who made threats against Russian pilots and their families.

Speaking on the air, Moseychuk voiced calls for violence against Russian pilots and their families, expressing a misanthropic position and real threats.

A.I. Bastrykin has instructed to bring N. Moseychuk to the responsibility as established by law under a criminal case. After collecting the necessary information, she will be put on the international wanted list.
