
Chairman of the IC of Russia Instructs to Investigate Circumstances of Brutal Murder of Woman by Ukrainian Nationalists

The Chairman of the IC of Russia has instructed to record and investigate the circumstances of torturing and murdering a woman in the city of Mariupol within a criminal case.

According to the available data, Ukrainian nationalists from the Azov battalion had been brutalizing the young woman residing in Mariupol for a long time, inflicting bodily injuries. Her body with traces of torture and a swastika carved on her stomach was found in the basement of one of the city schools, where a nationalist base was located.

As part of the investigation, the investigators will establish the circumstances of the incident and Ukrainian nationalists involved in committing this brutal crime.
