
Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia Instructs Investigators to Establish Circumstances Described by Mariupol Refugee

Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin has instructed the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia to document and investigate the crime described by a refugee from Mariupol.

According to the media reports, neo-Nazis from the Ukrainian Azov regiment killed policemen in Mariupol in order to stage photos and videos, which they planned to use to accuse Russian servicemen of committing these crimes.

The department head has instructed the investigators to establish all the circumstances described by the man.
