
Chairman of the IC of Russia Instructs to Document and Investigate Shell from Ukrainian Direction Hitting Tavricheskoye Village in Crimea

Chairman of the Investigative Committee Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin has instructed the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia to document and investigate the fact that a shell from the Ukrainian direction hit the village of Tavricheskoye in the north of Crimea.

According to the available information, a shell, which arrived from the Ukrainian direction, exploded in the settlement, producing a shock wave that shattered window panes in residential buildings. In addition, the electricity supply in the village was cut.

The department head has instructed the investigators to give a legal evaluation of this incident and to identify everyone involved in it in order to resolve the issue of holding them criminally liable.

11 April 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1672683>