Military Investigators Discover a Temporary Stationing Point for the Ukrainian Military Unit A4395

During a trip to the town Trekhizbenka, officers of the Military Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, together with the troops of the People's Militia of the Lugansk People's Republic, discovered a temporary stationing point for the military unit A4395 (42nd separate motorized infantry battalion), which is part of the military unit A1736 (57th separate motorized infantry brigade).

During the inspection of the stationing point, they found official documentation, as well as foreign-made weapons, the NLAW ATGMs, which had been left by the servicemen of the Armed Forces of Ukraine who had vacated the stationing point.
