
Chairman of the IC of Russia Instructs Investigators to Investigate the Fact of Ukrainian Nationalists Preparing Another Provocation

A.I. Bastrykin, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, has instructed officers to investigate the fact of a public provocation being prepared by representatives of Ukrainian nationalist units against the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation.

According to the Ministry of Defense of the Russian Federation, nationalists are preparing provocations in Konstantinovka, the Donetsk People's Republic. In particular, they are planning to blow up an overpass. The idea behind this provocation is to disseminate false information in the Western media about the atrocities of the Russian military and the destruction of critical civilian infrastructure by them.

A.I. Bastrykin has instructed the Main Investigative Department of the IC of Russia to record the reports about the impending crime in order to identify those involved and subsequently hold them accountable.
