
The Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee instructed to investigate the shelling occurred in Belgorodskaya oblast

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin has instructed his Subordinated Officers to document and investigate the shelling of a settlement located in Belgorodskaya oblast.

According to reports, the territory of the Sereda settlement, Shebekinsky gorodskoy okrug (urban-type settlement), was fired by the Ukraine part, one civilian was injured, having received a shrapnel wound.

The Investigators are identifying all the circumstances and the details of the crime, and they are taking all measures in order to identify all persons involved for their further prosecution.

15 May 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1687323>