rejoiced the Officials of the Investigative Committee arrival, inviting them to join a festive matinee, where their talents had been demonstrated.

Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin talked to the Center's personnel, he asked about the educational process results and about the social adaptation of the students. The Teachers of the Centre expressed their gratitude to the Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the attention he had paid, noting that the comprehensive support of the department was extremely significant for the institution. Mr. A.I. Bastrykin, in his turn, stressed that the protection of the rights of juveniles was the direct responsibility of the State and the Society. The Investigative Committee was guided by the interests and needs of children in its activities, understanding the importance of forming a sense of responsibility in the younger generation.

Thanking the staff for the warm event, the Investigative Committee Officials granted the children with memorable gifts and candies.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia congratulated the children on the first summer holiday – the International Children's Day, expressing his best wishes. The Head of the Investigative Committee assured that the department would not stand aside from any difficulties and needs of the center, since our future and the future of the Fatherland were in children.
