
The Investigative Committee of Russia Will Give a Legal Assessment of the New Facts of the Criminal Actions of the Armed Forces of Ukraine Against Civilian Population

Investigators of the Investigative Committee of Russia will record and investigate new facts of the criminal actions of the Kiev regime against civilians of Donbass.

According to the headquarters of the territorial defense of the DPR, a 78-year-old woman was killed by the shelling of the Armed Forces of Ukraine on Ulegorskaya street in Petrovsky Raion of Donetsk.

Also, the DPR representative office at the Joint Center for Control and Coordination of the Ceasefire (JCCC) reported that three people were injured during the shelling of the Budyonnovsky district of Donetsk by the Ukrainian military.

Investigators of the IC of Russia will establish the circumstances of these crimes committed by the Kiev regime. Those involved will be prosecuted.
