
Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to launch a criminal case in subjective to the death of a man caused by shelling committed by the Ukrinian military forces in Belgorodskaya oblast

Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin - Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, instructed to launch a criminal case on the shelling of the Zhuravlevka and Nekhoteevka settlements located in Belgorodskaya oblast, committed by Ukraine military.

According to available information, one man, born in 1958 died, and residential houses and buildings were damaged, as a result of the shelling of the Nekhoteevka settlement.

The Head of the Body instructed the investigators to document all the circumstances of the crime, and to identify the exact individuals of the Ukrainian security forces who committed a particularly serious crime against civilians.

20 July 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1707284>