
Launched a criminal case against the shelling by the Ukrainian nationalists of the Lomakovka settlement, Bryanskaya oblast

The Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation launched a criminal case against the shelling of the Lomakovka settlement, Bryanskaya oblast, on the grounds of a crime prescribed in Part 3, Article 30, paragraphs "a", "f", "g" Part 2 , Article 105 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (attempted murder).

According to the investigation, on the morning of July 30, 2022, Ukrainian nationalists, executing the deliberately criminal orders of higher commanders and officials of the Armed Forces of Ukraine and other staff from among the members of the top military and political leadership of Ukraine, fired mortars at the territory of the Lomakovka settlement, Starodubsky rayon, Bryanskaya oblast. As a result of the shelling, a storage shed, a store building, a cultural recreation center and several residential buildings were damaged. Due to the fact that the residents of the settlement were not in the impact zone of the shells, they were not injured.

The Investigative Committee of Russia identifies all the persons involved in the commission of the crime in order to prosecute them.
