The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to launch a criminal case on the Russophobic statements of the Ukrainian TV host

On the air of the NTA TV channel, the Ukrainian host, Ms. Yanina Sokolova, voiced her position on the need to commit the murder of Russian people on a national basis. In her speech, she openly expressed threats against the Russian people, noting the need for their merciless extermination.

Within a criminal investigation, on the instruction of the Head of the Department, investigators of the Russian Investigative Committee will examine the mentioned statements, and based on the results of the analysis, a criminal-legal assessment will be given to the actions of the Ukrainian TV host.
