
On the instruction of the Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia, a report will be submitted on verification activities related to an application for a crime against a minor

The media reported on the appeal of a resident from Tyumenskaya oblast to the Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee with a request to investigate all the details related to the possible crime of a sexual nature committed against a minor child. The woman reported about repeated facts, and she expressed her fears in regards to biased attitude from the local investigating authorities, which are currently conducting an investigation.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. A. A. Kublyakov, Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation for Tyumenskaya oblast, to submit a report on the ongoing verification activities, where he instructed to study in detail all the arguments of the applicant. The progress of the verification is a subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the IC of Russia.
