
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to launch a criminal investigation on the poisoning of people in Moscow

Mr. A.I. Bastrykin, Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, instructed Mr. A. A. Strizhov, Head of the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Moscow, to launch a criminal case on the poisoning of people in the south-east of Moscow and to submit a report on the progress of the investigation. As a result of the incident, two citizens were hospitalized.

It is known, that the house where the family was poisoned by an unknown substance is disconnected from the electricity. According to preliminary data, experts of city services did not find a domestic gas leak neither.

The execution of the Chairman's order is a subject of control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
