
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee instructed to launch a criminal case on information about the violation of the rights of citizens from Lipetskaya oblast

In one of the social networks the residents of Lipetskaya oblast turned to Mr. Bastrykin A.I., Head of the Russian Investigative Committee, talking about the emergency state of the houses, where they have to live. As it follows from the appeal, the residents of two-story houses live in unsanitary conditions in one of the villages of the Zadonsky raion. It is noted that flights of stairs in the premises are destroyed due to the inadequate condition of the roof during precipitation, the apartment is constantly flooded, mold is spreading. The applicants complain about the inaction of local government officials who do not solve the problem of providing comfortable housing. In connection with the mentioned information published, the investigating authorities of the Russian Investigative Committee for Lipetsk oblast have promptly organized a pre-investigation inspection.

The investigation and results of the is is a subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate.
