
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to conduct an inspection based on the appeal of residents of the Volgograd city relative for their complaint about the transport infrastructure disruption

Residents of Volgograd sent an appeal to the Head of the Russian Investigative Committee about the disruption of community. In their opinion, the active trolleybus network in one of the districts of the city has been unreasonably destructed. Residents claim that unidentified persons deliberately destroyed the energy facilities of the trolleybus traffic, which caused damage to the city economy and it is a violation of the rights of residents of Kirovsky raion in Volgograd.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Semenov V.I., Head of the Investigative Directorate for Volgograd oblast to arrange an inspection based on reasons stated in the appeal and submit a report on the situation.

The execution of the instruction is a subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate.
