
Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructs to provide a report on the kidnapping of a child in Moscow

Citizens, concerned about the situation that happened on September 5 related to the kidnapping of a juvenile kid by his father, who had been deprived of his parental rights, appealed to the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation through social networks. On this fact, a procedural inspection was organized by the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the city of Moscow.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. A.A. Strizhov, Head of the Main Investigation Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the city of Moscow, to examine the reasons set forth in the appeal and promptly report on the progress and results of the procedural inspection.
