
The progress of the inspection on the fact of violation of the rights of residents of one of the settlements in Moscow oblast

According to reports, residents of the Razinkovo settlement in Stupino okrug of Moscow oblast are forced to heat their homes with wood, since a month and a half ago their gas supply was turned off due to problems at the gas distribution unit. People have repeatedly appealed to gas company management and officials, but the problem with the lack of gas supply still remains unresolved.

On this fact, a procedural inspection was organized in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Moscow oblast.

The Chairman of the IC of Russia instructed Mr. Chvanov V.V., acting Head of the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Moscow oblast, to report on the progress and results of the ongoing procedural inspection.

The inspection and the instruction performance are the subject to control in the Main Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
