
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to launch a criminal investigation on the murder of the Deputy Head of the civilian-military administration of Berdyansk

Mr. A.I. Bastrykin, Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, instructed to launch a criminal investigation into the murder of Mr. Oleg Boyko, Deputy Head of the civilian-military administration of the Berdyansk city for housing and communal services, and his wife, Ms. Lyudmila Boyko, who headed the city Territorial Electoral Commission.

It is reported that the crime was committed in the Colonia micro-raion.

Mr. A.I. Bastrykin instructed to detect all the circumstances of the crime and identify the persons involved in its commission.

17 September 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1724497>