
Following the instruction of the Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee, a procedural inspection will be conducted on the violation of the housing rights of orphans from Volgograd oblast

In social networks, criticism of the work of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia in Volgograd oblast was published in terms of verifying information related to the provision of low-quality housing to orphans in the Chernyshkovsky industrial settlement.

Mr. A.I. Bastrykin, Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, instructed Mr. Semenov V.I., Head of the Investigative Directorate for Volgograd oblast, to conduct an inspection for verification of the arguments presented.

The inspection and its outcomes are the subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Department.
