
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to report on the progress of the criminal investigation of a crime committed against a juvenile in Orenburg oblast

The investigating authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Orenburg oblast launched a criminal case in accordance with paragraph "b", Part 4, Article 131 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation, based on the results of consideration of a report about violent acts against a 9-year-old resident of the Novotroitsk town. On suspicion of committing the investigated crime, a 52-year-old resident of the Novotroitsk town was detained, who, according to the investigation, on September 16, 2022, having met a juvenile unknown to him on the street, forced her to follow him to his apartment, where he committed a crime against the sexual integrity of the victim. The suspect has been detained.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Zuderman V.D., Head of the Investigative Directorate for Orenburg oblast, to report on the progress of the criminal investigation.

The investigation is a subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Department.
