
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to give a legal assessment of the shelling occurred in Kursk oblast within the criminal investigation

Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin, Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation instructed to launch a criminal investigation over the shelling of the Kursk oblast territory committed by the Armed Forces of Ukraine. It is reported that the Gordeevka settlement was under attack. Civilians were not injured, but houses and power lines were damaged.

Within the criminal investigation, investigators of the Russian Investigative Committee will give a legal assessment of what had happened and identify the persons involved in the crime.

01 October 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1728122>