
Criminal investigation of a case on torturing a child in a private kindergarten in Krasnodar Krai is a subject to control of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia put

The Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Krasnodar Krai are investigating a criminal case against a 53-year-old tutor of a private kindergarten, suspected of torturing a 9-year-old child (paragraph "d", Part 2, Article 117 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation).

According to the investigation, in January and February 2021, the tutor, using violent techniques, systematically hit the child in various parts of the body. The investigation will also identify all persons who may be involved in the commission of crimes against children, as well as other children affected by the actions of employees of a private kindergarten. The investigation will also give a legal assessment of the actions of employees of a private preschool institution in terms of improper performance of duties for raising children (Article 156 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation).

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Maslov A.K., Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Krasnodar Krai, to submit a report on the circumstances of the incident.

The investigation of the criminal case is a subject control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Department.
