
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to report on possible violation of the rights of an orphan in Lipetsk Oblast

An appeal to the Authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia from a resident of Lipetsk Oblast was published on social networks, who said that he was an orphan and, despite a court decision in his favor, could not get the housing he was entitled to by law.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Shapovalov E.V., Head of the Investigative Directorate for Lipetsk Oblast, to inspect the voiced above arguments about the violation of rights and submit a report on the situation.
