
The Head of the Department instructs to submit a report on the torturing a juvenile in Moscow Oblast

Based on information posted on one of the social media, the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Moscow Oblast launch a criminal investigation on the torture of a girl (clause "d, f", Part 2, Article 117, Article 156 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation). The video shows screens of a severe beating of a child, and the explanation says that the mother and sister of a young girl systematically torture her. Currently, investigators are detecting all the circumstances of the crime.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Starikov A.Yu., Head of the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Moscow Oblast to submit a report on the circumstances of the crime, making the criminal investigation a subject to control of the Main Directorate of the Department.

23 October 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1734379>