

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to organize an inspection on information about the violation of the rights of a retiree in Moscow Oblast

On the air of the Federal Channel, it was reported that an 81-year-old retiree in Odintsovo raion of Moscow Oblast is defending his rights to the house, which is a subject of being confiscated from him. Allegedly, the only housing of the retiree was sold for the debts of his daughter, and now it has a different owner, who managed to rent out the premises together with the former one.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Starikov A.Yu., Head of the Main Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Moscow Oblast, to organize an inspection based on the stated arguments and to submit a report. The inspection is a subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Department.
